Asakusa's main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple, built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional, local snacks and souvenirs for centuries.

T-2 Meiji Jingu Shrine and Harajuku

Meiji shrine is located near Harajuku station. You can enjoy the fresh air of nature, the beautiful palace, and the vibrant teenage culture and fashion of the area all at once. There are worshipers from all over the country, and the number of worshipers at Hatsumode is the highest in Japan. The vast site of about 700,000 square meters is planted with about 100,000 trees collected from all over the country.
